

Biographies

Rico Tice

Presenter and course deviser

Rico Tice is an Associate Minister at All Souls Church, Langham Place in London, UK. Born in Chile, he spent his early years in Uganda and Zaire before being educated in England. Rico spent a year working at a church in inner city Liverpool, then studied history at Bristol University. After working for Hewlett Packard, he went on to graduate from theological college at Wycliffe Hall, Oxford.

Rico is much in demand as a speaker and evangelist throughout the world. He developed Christianity Explored at All Souls.

Rico is married to Lucy and has a young son.

Barry Cooper

Script writer and theological adviser

Barry Cooper is the Writer and Theological Advisor at Christianity Explored Ministries. He studied English Literature at St Catherine's College, Oxford, and Theology at Trinity Evangelical Divinity School, Chicago. He also enjoyed a six year acting career that included work at Shakespeare's Globe and the National Theatre. As well as co-writing resources such as Christianity Explored, The Real Jesus, If You Could Ask God One Question and CY, Barry wrote and presented the Discipleship Explored DVD Series. He also blogs at barrycooper.com

The Good Book Company

Publisher

The Good Book Company (www.thegoodbookcompany.com) is an international evangelical publishing company based in the United Kingdom, that specializes in producing Bible-centered resources that communicate the historic truths of the Christian faith in everyday language.

We have offices in London, Virginia, Sydney and New Zealand, and are involved in a whole range of services to the churches, including training, theological education, and conferencing.

FOR MORE INFORMATION OR INTERVIEW CONTACT:

Brad Byrd @ 866-244-2165

brad.byrd@thegoodbook.com

View trailers and DVD content online: www.thegoodbook.co.uk/christianity-explored-dvd

To review complete DVD, leader's guide and handbook, contact Brad Byrd