

INTERNATIONAL ACCLAIM FOR CHRISTIANITY EXPLORED

"We have no better evangelistic tool or method than inviting the Holy Spirit to speak through God's Word and testify to the identity, mission, and call of Jesus Christ. And that's just what Christianity Explored does by helping leaders guide their friends, family, and neighbors through the Gospel of Mark to discover the God who is just to punish sin and merciful to forgive all who call on the name of the Lord Jesus Christ."

Collin Hansen, editorial director, The Gospel Coalition; Editor at Large for Christianity Today

"My wife and I host CE with our friends and we have seen God move in mighty ways in our lives through it and in the lives of those participating with us in our home." Andrew Palau International Evangelist

"Combining evangelistic passion and evangelical commitments, one need not choose between relevance and faithfulness with Christianity Explored. It represents the best example I know of for effectively reaching non-Christians without diluting the message."

Michael Horton, Prof of Theology, Westminster Seminary, California

"After using the course for many years at St. James we have come to treasure both its group dynamic as well as its direct approach for outreach. We also find Christianity Explored a ready to use tool, especially suited to our multi-cultural congregation."

Ross Anderson, Rector, St. James Church, Cape Town

"Christianity Explored is the best available training material which I have seen over the last twenty years."

Lindsay Brown, General Secretary, International Fellowship of Evangelical Students

"For myself, the presentation of Mark's Gospel - and some of the things that are clearly said in Mark's Gospel - really spoke to my own heart and convicted me in terms of my own ministry. I cannot speak more highly of the material and how it was presented, and I recommend it without reservation."

Bill Norman, Senior Pastor, Blythwood Road Baptist Church, Toronto

"Christianity Explored has increased our confidence in the handling of the Word of God and it has made the gospel clearer to people who weren't as clear. It was a real eye-opener for many people. I can highly commend it."

Paul Rees, Senior Pastor, Christ The Redeemer Church, Spokane, Washington

"Christianity Explored is an incredible evangelistic and relational tool."

Kevin Allen, Pastor, Village Seven Presbyterian Church, Colorado Springs, Colorado

"Christianity Explored has got us excited about reading Mark's Gospel again and really understanding it and it's got us motivated and enthusiastic to spread this great gospel among the lost in Oregon."

David Humphrey, Pastor, St. Matthew's Episcopal Church, Portland, Oregon

"It has been an increasing concern of ours to train our people better for gospel ministry in terms of their own witness. Our people have been greatly helped by Christianity Explored, they're encouraged and beyond encouraged - they're excited and very eager to get about the work of gospel witness."

Fred Zaspel, Senior Pastor, Cornerstone Church, Skippack, Pennsylvania

"I think Christianity Explored is the way to go in our culture today."

Chuck Griffith, Outreach Director, Christ Presbyterian Church, Nashville, Tennessee

"We're living in days in which, more than ever, people are totally ignorant even of the basic meaning of the Christian faith, and we've found around the world that Christianity Explored is making a wonderful contribution to the mission of the church."

Archbishop Greg Venables, Primate of the Southern Cone

We've been absolutely delighted with the course in the sense that it has scriptural integrity, it gives a clear picture of salvation and it respects people coming into the course. We love the course and I highly recommend it to anyone."

Matthew Burt, Senior Pastor, Evangelical Covenant Church, Springfield, Massachusetts

"I have found the Christianity Explored material to be the most biblical approach to evangelism in a program form that I have found in over 25 years of ministry."

The Ven. Jon Abboud, Archdeacon, Reformed Episcopal Diocese of the Northeast and Mid-Atlantic
