

PREACHING MARK

TALK OUTLINES FOR THE GOSPEL OF MARK

...written for Bible teachers around the world

Pray – Prepare – Preach is a new series of guides to help Bible teachers world-wide explain God's word clearly and accurately. 2 Timothy 2:15 says: 'Be a good worker, one who does not need to be ashamed, one who correctly (rightly) explains the word of truth.' We want to help you to:

- UNDERSTAND the main point of the Bible section
- THINK how it is important for your people
- TEACH the Bible section clearly

The Pray – Prepare – Preach (PPP) series provides basic sermon outlines covering key Bible books. These are written in very simple English. They provide:

- a study section to help the preacher understand the passage in its context.
- a basic talk outline, with suggestions for headings, illustrations and application.

'This helpful guide is a wonderful tool for getting to the heart of Mark's Gospel, understanding its message, clarifying its teaching and communicating it to others with confidence and accuracy. I warmly commend it.'

David Jackman, President, Proclamation Trust, UK.

'One of the greatest needs around the world is for preaching that is firmly based in the Bible passage, exposing its power and its relevance. Preaching Mark is a great help for the many pastors and lay preachers who have so few resources.'

Jonathan Lamb, Director, Langham Preaching, Langham Partnership International.

'This book is a reliable guide on the emphases of Mark's Gospel: Who Jesus is and Why He came. It is written in easily understandable English with down-to-earth applications. May the Lord be pleased to use this material to change many lives.'

Emmanuel Egbunu, Bishop of Lokoja, Nigeria.
