Main speaker

Susie Leafe has been involved with the Bristol Women's Conference for years so regulars may know her well. After 12 years teaching Geography in Bristol, she now divides her time between Bristol and Cornwall, working with women at Fowey parish church and promoting family life in the Truro Diocese. She is very grateful to God for Dan, her husband, who makes it all possible. Susie will be helping us understand what a glorious, spirit-filled life looks like from 2 Corinthians.

- Cost includes lunch and refreshments. A bookstall will be available.
- Registration: doors open at 9.15am. Please aim to arrive by 9.45am to allow time for registration.
- For any queries please email: info@bristolwomensconference.org or telephone 0117 373 1963

Seminars

ABC of 1-2-1

Come and find out why meeting with another woman to pray and read the Bible will encourage you and your church family.

Can't cook, won't cook: don't need to cook!

Take the Bible's view of hospitality, mix with plenty of practical advice and get ready to serve.

Reflections from a cracked mirror

Are you seeing yourself in the wrong mirror? Discover why only the Bible's reflection can liberate you from a distorted image.

Knowing my place

Supporting your husband; a man's perspective. Led by men!

A blueprint for my life?

How can I know God's will for my life? A chance to explore what the Bible says about the nature of His guidance.

Finding Jesus in Isaiah

Is life getting on top of you? Do you need to breathe again? Come and be comforted by our Shepherd King.

The Titus Trend

Do you feel young and in need of help or older with wisdom to offer? Discover how to make the most of cross generational relationships

Bitesize

These optional short sessions are for sharing ideas or doing something practical. If you prefer to use the time to chat, pray or get some fresh air there will be coffee and space to do so. Please note, spaces are limited so please state your preferred options (3) at the time of booking.

Book reviews Reading a Christian book can be a great encouragement in our faith—come and hear about books which other women have enjoyed. (It would be helpful but not essential to come prepared with your own recommendation of a Christian book which has had a positive impact on you).

Film Club Practical advice and ideas on how to run your own film club, generally watch films and use the medium of film to evangelise, encourage or engage

What makes a good congregational song? Not sure where to turn for new songs? Come and learn some great new congregational songs to get you started!

How to survive the Easter holidays! Be inspired and share ideas to enjoy the Easter holidays and show children (aged 0-11) something of the true message of Easter

Creative ways to support mission partners Come and share ideas on how to encourage and support those serving the Lord in distant (and not so distant) places.

Prayer walk Take a leisurely walk through the streets of Easton surrounding the church and pray straight into the heart of this colourful but often troubled community

Prayer room Time out for prayer—with others or alone.

Making (group) Bible study count How to break the ice, keep discussion flowing, handle different characters and get maximum spiritual benefit for all.
