Somethingism

Exploring Our Sense of More

Most of us have a sense that there may be more out there than we can see or touch—not necessarily a God but something. In this book, imaginative and thoughtful chapters explore our experiences, describing with credibility and beauty the possibility that our sense of something out there correlates to a someone who not only exists but can be known and encountered in the person of Jesus. The book includes an explanation of the purpose, forgiveness, and joy that Jesus offers.

Carl Laferton is a director at The Good Book Company and best-selling author of The Garden, the Curtain and the Cross and God's Big Promises Bible Storybook.

When they got to Emmaus it was getting late, so Jesus' friends invited the strange stranger to have a meal with them. He took some bread and broke it into pieces... and at that exact moment God allowed the men to see that this stranger was not a stranger at all! It was Jesus!

Jesus disappeared. So the men rushed to tell Jesus' other friends that he was. While they were talking, Jesus appeared again and said, 'I am making all God's promises come true.'

What Are Feelings For? Board Book A Lift-the-Flap Board Book

This helpful and engaging training tool will help parents to teach their kids that God made them with feelings. Emotions can tell us when to ask for help or when we need a rest. Even better, they help us love God! We can always share our feelings with Jesus. But we don't need to let our emotions control us.

Not only will children be encouraged to follow Jesus' example, but they'll also be reassured that he loves us no matter what we do (or feel). He can forgive us when we fail and help us to change.
