

CHAPTER 1

IT JUST GETS BETTER

Well, hello there. How very WONDERFUL to see you, my friend. I don't know if we've met before, but in a way that doesn't matter because I'm meeting you NOW!

Allow me to introduce myself – my name is Luke. I'm an average sort of guy, with average sort of hair and average sort of eyes, except I feel a bit like my eyes have been out on stalks these past few years, because I've seen so many AMAZING, incredible totally mind-boggling THINGS.

Sorry – I'm getting carried away already. I meant to say, I'm a doctor, you know, the kind that makes people better when they're ill... But I don't want to tell you about FIXING snotty noses, mending broken elbows and clipping rotten toe nails. NO . I want to tell you a story that gets better and better and BETTER and BETTER and even more BETTERER still!

OK, so there are a few things you NEED to know.
12 things, in fact:

1 There was this guy called JESUS. He was pretty epic.

2 He was born in a barn, in Bethlehem, with some  cows and sheep,  and all their smells.

3 His mum was called MARY, and his dad was Joseph.
Well, sort of - Joseph was his dad, but so was GOD too (complicated - I KNOW!).

4 Angels had told MARY that she was going to have a super SPECIAL baby.

5 And the angels were right. Jesus was SUPER special.

6 When Jesus grew up he did some truly awesome stuff. He made sick people well, he walked on water, he fed THOUSANDS of people with two fish and five loaves of bread, and soooo much more. Jesus chose 12 lads to follow him. IN FACT, LOADS of people followed Jesus everywhere!

If you want to find out a bit more about all the awesome stuff that Jesus did then grab a Bible and find a bit in it called "The Gospel of Luke" or, if you like, you can also find it here: www.diaryofadisciple.org

7 So Jesus, GOD'S Son, did all these AMAZING things, but he only did them because he wanted people to realise how wonderful God is and how much he    loves them.

He wanted everyone to know that God was giving them a chance  to love him back.

8 But even though Jesus did GREAT things, and he was God's Son, not everyone liked him very much. IN FACT, some people  hated him — so much, that they  made a plan to KILL him. Nasty.

9 And they DID. One day, when Jesus and his mates were having a special meal together, he suddenly started saying that SOMEONE in the room was going to hand him over to the bad guys. And then everything happened so fast.

The BAD guys got him. They nailed him to a cross outside Jerusalem. They killed him even though he'd done nothing wrong. That was the worst day

EVER. It was like everything had stopped.

11 But it hadn't. Because  three days later, he was back!  Mind-boggling, right? He was DEAD.

Definitely TOTALLY DEAD, inside a big tomb, with an enormous  rock in the way, and then he wasn't there any more! He was alive!! Loads of  people saw him: he walked, talked and ate fish.

12 Jesus hung around for a whole  40 days. And he had even more AMAZING things to say to his mates. He told them  they had to stay in Jerusalem and he promised that he'd send "the Holy Spirit" to help them. (I'll explain about that in a bit.) Then he disappeared. He was carried up  to  heaven by a cloud.

Honestly -  he was! And when he went up, two scary glowing angel men came  down.

They asked Jesus' mates ^{??} why ^{??} they were staring at the

(I mean, I know I would've been staring with my mouth open like a fish), and then they said: "You've just seen go to heaven, but he'll come BACK again, too, just like he went."

JESUS

And THAT, my friends, is where we start this

SO

When the disciples (that's the posh name for Jesus' mates) had managed to close their fish mouths they walked back to Jerusalem and went back to the ROOM where they'd been hanging out.

Peter, John, James, Andrew, Philip, Thomas, Bartholomew, Matthew, another James, Simon and Judas just wanted to  talk to God about everything that had happened.  IN FACT, that's pretty much all they did. They  prayed and prayed and prayed, and then prayed some MORE. MARY and her boys (Jesus'  mum and  brothers) joined in too, as well as a few OTHER women.

Peter   was kind of in charge, and when everyone got together (there were about 120 people by now) he'd  get up and do a LITTLE speech.

If you can count, you ^{1, 2, 3...} might've noticed I said there were 12 of Jesus' mates whom he chose to follow  him - and in that  list I just wrote down there were only 11.

I missed someone. Judas. (Not the one in the list, another one.) Judas was the one who let Jesus down.

HE was the one who told the bad guys where they could find Jesus, all because they gave him a bag of silver.

Peter told everyone that Judas had bought a field with his bag of silver, but that when he'd gone to see it, he had a rather HORRIBLE, super gory, mightily messy accident and DIED. Eww. It was SOOOO gross and GOOEY that everyone who lived near the field called it "The field of blood". BLEURGH.

, even though that was all a bit GRIM, Peter told everyone that God KNEW it was going to happen, way way way before it did. God had said, "His field will be empty and no one will EVER live there ...

Someone will HAVE to take his place."

And so that's what happened. Peter said someone who'd followed Jesus from the beginning, someone who'd seen it ALL and knew the story so far, would have to take Judas' place. So the disciples said it would have to be either Barsabbas or Matthias. But they didn't want to choose - they wanted GOD to do the choosing.

hmm

So, they asked God to SHOW them who it should be.
And he did. Matthias became the new number 12.

Now it all gets PROPER EXCITING. I can't WAIT to tell you what happened

next!
