

The Camp Courage Song

Sing the song that Abigail and her friends learned around the campfire... and then sang in the woods to scare the bears away! It's a call and response song, which means it is most fun when one person sings all the bolded lines, and everyone else sings back the rest of the lines. Have fun making up your own tune!

If I were a fire, I'd go...

Crackle and pop!

And if I were the wind, I'd go...

Whoosh, whoosh, stop!

Well, if I were a tree, I'd go...

Swish, swoosh, swash!

Then if I were a leaf, I'd go...

Rustle, rustle, plop!

But if I were an owl, I'd go...

Hoo hoo! Caw!

Well, if I were a bear, I'd go...

Roar, roar, grrrr!

And if I were a camper, I'd say,

Courage, take heart!

Say WHAT?!

I SAID,

Courage, take heart!

This is all just a part...

Part of WHAT?!

Part of God's plan!

We're Camp Courage Campers—

We trust that God can...

Can WHAT?!

Can make good out of bad,

And keep us with him!

We're Camp Courage Campers!

We trust God's good plan!
