Trust in the Lord forever, for the Lord our Lord is a Rock of Ages.

A good, moral teacher?

“I am the light of the world”

“I am the resurrection”

“I am the way, the truth and the life”

“A man who was merely a man and said the sort of things Jesus said would not be a great moral teacher. He would either be a lunatic — on the level with the man who says he is a poached egg — or else he would be the Devil of Hell. You must make your choice. Either this man was, and is, the Son of God, or else a madman or something worse.”

C S Lewis

Through Jesus' death and resurrection our relationship with God
can be restored.

Only man should pay for his sins,
since it was he who was in default.

Only God could make this payment,
since it was he who demanded it.

Not the labour of my hands
Can fulfil Thy law's demands;

Could my zeal no respite know,
Could my tears forever flow,

All for sin could not atone;

Thou must save, and Thou alone.

Nothing in my hand I bring,
Simply to Thy cross I cling;
Naked, come to Thee for dress;
Helpless look to Thee for grace;
Foul, I to the Fountain fly;
Wash me, Saviour, or I die.

“For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in Him, shall not perish but have eternal life.”

John 3:16

We are helpless.

We are priceless.

A large, solid black cross stands in the middle of a dark, choppy ocean. The cross is centered vertically and horizontally. The sky is filled with heavy, grey clouds, with a bright light source breaking through near the horizon, creating a shimmering path of light on the water's surface. In the far distance, a city skyline is visible on the horizon line.

God has paid it all.

God has done it all.
